Experience the unsurpassed beauty of Hells Canyon on a jet boat or raft with Hells Canyon Adventures. We offer one-day white water rafting trips, jet boat tours or fishing charters down the rapids of the Snake River in the deepest gorge in the North American Continent. While floating, jet boating, or fishing from the south entrance of Hells Canyon you will enjoy the majestic mountains, breathtaking white water, wildlife, and a solitude that you will only find in the Hells Canyon National Recreation Area.

Hells Canyon Adventures (HCA) is the only company that provides tours that start in the heart (deepest portion) of Hells Canyon.

HCA specializes in the navigation of the biggest white water rapids of Hells Canyon.

On your tour you will hear a personalized and unique narration either from the captain or deckhand about the history and geology of the canyon. Your Hells Canyon experience will also include optional short side hikes to early canyon homesteads or Native American sites. Along with that, most of our tours include a buffet style lunch on the river made fresh daily by our kitchen crew.

Where is Hells Canyon Adventures Located?

All of our tours start one mile below Hells Canyon Dam at the Hells Canyon boat launch. Hells Canyon Adventures is on the south end of Hells Canyon near Oxbow, Oregon. It is approximately 80 miles east of Baker City, Oregon (Interstate 84) on a Scenic All American Road, Hells Canyon Byway. Coming from Idaho it is approximately 52 miles west of Cambridge, Idaho.

This is so much more than just a "boat ride."

Enjoy a day filled with adventure navigating through the largest rapids in Hells Canyon while traveling through the deepest part of the canyon. On your jet boat tour, you will experience spectacular scenery, Indian pictographs, an abandoned homesteader's cabin and the Kirkwood Living Historical Ranch. This Ranch, now a museum, was the home of former Governor and U.S. Senator of Idaho, Len Jordan, and his wife Grace, author of "Home Below Hells Canyon."

The tour includes a fresh deli lunch served buffet style on the river bank with homemade goodies and cold drinks.

Be sure to bring your camera and come prepared to swim. Swimming is refreshing in the Snake River's warm water (68 degrees plus).

Tour begins at 9:00 A.M. Pacific Time & returns around 3:00 P.M.

The whole family can enjoy this tour.

A Delightful Scenic Jet Boat Tour to the deepest part of Hells Canyon. This is not a wild, white water adventure. We will stop to look at Native American pictographs and the remains of an Indian pit house. You will also hear commentary about geology and early homestead life in the Canyon. The water is warm and there may be time to swim, so come prepared. Don't forget your camera!

The morning tour includes lunch with homemade goodies and cold drinks, served buffet style on the river bank.

You Get the BEST of Both Worlds!

Experience one of the wildest one-day white water rafting trips of your life. A trip like this is not offered anywhere else in the Pacific Northwest. We raft the best of Hells Canyon's rapids including the famed "Wild Sheep and Granite Creek" rapids. See it from the other perspective as we return upstream in one of our United States Coast Guard inspected jet boats.

This trip includes a fresh deli lunch prepared by our kitchen staff. Waterproof bags are provided for your camera and personal items. Dry gear is provided on chilly days.

We do our best to make sure you are WET most of the day. Dress accordingly. Wear shoes that will allow you to get on and off the raft throughout the day safely. Flip flops not recommended. We recommend that you bring sunscreen, sunglasses, and a hat.
