PRODUCT QUESTIONS

Q15: What are the differences between an electronic lock and a mechanical lock?

A15: The electronic lock is a great choice for customers looking for a user friendly, quick access solution. The electronic lock is battery operated (9 volt alkaline). The mechanical lock comes with a pre-set combination, and is operated by turning the dial. Both the mechanical and electronic locks are UL listed, and provide excellent security. The mechanical dial offers time-tested dependability. In addition, both locks are equipped with internal relockers for added protection.

Q16: What does the fire rating mean?

A16: Every Heritage Safe has been tested and certified by an independent fire testing facility. Featuring the I-tech Thermal Response Class III fire rating, each safe is rated at 1250°F for 75 minutes. This means that the safe can endure temperatures of 1200°F for 60 minutes before the internal temperature of the safe reaches 350°F. An internal temperature of 350°F signifies test failure. Keep in mind that a typical house fire burns at approximately 1200° F. In general, the fire reaches its hottest point at approximately 20 minutes before burning itself out in one spot, or moving to a new location (most common), taking with it the majority of heat.

Q17: What is the difference between a Signature Deluxe Series and American Deluxe Series safe model?

A17: The most apparent difference between the two models is the finish. The Signature Deluxe offers six high gloss finishes with gold trim, whereas the American Deluxe is available in a six textured-style granite finishes. Secondly, the Signature Deluxe has gold trim and a 14karat gold 3-point handle vs. chrome trim on the American Deluxe series.

Q18: What is the difference between a solid Heritage door and a competitor's composite door?

A18: Every Heritage Safe door is comprised of a solid 3/8" steel plate. Some composite doors consist of a thin 12 or 14-gauge piece of steel wrapped at the edge to give the appearance of thickness. Composite doors are much lighter than solid steel and do not provide the same level of security.

Q19: What is included in the lifetime warranty? Extended warranty?

A19: The Heritage Safe Lifetime Warranty covers forced attack, forced entry, & smoke and fire damage, and offers 5-year paint and mechanical lock coverage (2 year coverage on electronic locks). This warranty covers in-home repair; however, if factory repair or replacement is necessary, just return the damaged safe by prepaid freight, and Heritage will return your new or repaired safe free of charge. Heritage Safe provides the most inclusive Extended Warranty in the industry. In addition to standard warranty coverage, the extended warranty offers lifetime mechanical lock (5 year electronic lock), lifetime paint, lifetime mechanical/workmanship, and when necessary free freight both to and from the factory for repair or replacement.

Q20: How can I participate in the Extended Warranty?

A20: Inside your safe you will find an envelope with various instructional documents. Included in that information is a lifetime warranty certificate, as well as an extended warranty certificate. Fill out the extended warranty certificate, keep the top portion for your records, and send the bottom portion, along with a check for $199.00 to:
